Strothman was, on motion, made by acclamation.

Hon. C. F. Diefenbacher then placed before the convention the name of Frank Wilson as a candidate for reelection to the office of sheriff, the nomination was neatly seconded by Henry E. Smith, of Cheyenne, and a motion prevailed unanimously to make the nomination by acclamation.

A. McTaggart, of South Bend, presented the name of his townsman, Bernard Markey, before the convention for the office of county surveyor, the nomination was enthusiastically seconded, and on motion the nomination was made by acclamation.

For the office of coroner, Dr. A. S. Houck, of Holingson, placed the name of Dr. J. R. McIlvaire before the convention; and Frank T. Belt, of Pawnee Rock, put in nomination Dr. L. M. Daniels, of his town. Both nominations being seconded, an informal ballot was taken, resulting as follows:

On motion, a formal ballot was taken resulting as follows:

On motion, the nomination of Dr. J. R. McIlvaire was made unanimous.

On motion, the convention then adjourned.

NOMINATING A COMMISSIONER.

The delegates from the third commissioner district were called to order by Chairman Roetzel, W. E. Stoke was made secretary, and on motion an informal ballot was taken for commissioner, the result being:

On motion, a formal ballot was taken, with the following result:

On motion, the nomination of C. Coughlin was made unanimous.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE OFFICERS.
The members of the county central committee met in the jury room and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Chairman, T. H. Butler; Treasurer, Chas. Beye; Secretary, Fred Zutavern.

The committee then adjourned subject to a call of the chairman.

NOTES.
The convention was the largest delegate county convention ever held by the democratic party in Barton county and withal the most unanimous. All the principal officers were unanimously nominated by acclamation.

The gentlemen putting our worthy officers in nomination each made splendid speeches which were glowing commendations of the officers they named, and no word was said amiss.

Every member of the convention seemed to "feel it in his bones" that they had named the winning ticket for 1889.

Our future coroner, Dr. McIlvaire, the worthy mayor of Holingson, was unavoidably called away, but Dr. Houck promised that our coroner would "get there" in time to "sit on the remains of Galley & Co."

Our candidates did not weary the convention with long speeches, but preferred rather to let their works speak for themselves, believing that the farmers of Barton county would recognize the advantage of keeping experienced men in office.

Democracy in Barton county is getting worried, as they have good reasons to be, early in the season, when they commence to circulating such stories as the one put afloat at this point this week against W. E. Carr. An article in another column fully explains its self on the subject.—Pawnee Rock Leader.

Beg pardon, Bro. Lewis. The "democracy of Barton county" is not at all "worried," as they have no reason to be; and they have not commenced circulating any stories derogative to the opposing candidates. The democracy of Barton county have put a ticket in the field which will win upon the merits of its candidates, and does not have to attack the characters of our friends, the enemy.

The Farmers' Alliance is growing in Barton county, and we make the prediction that it will be a power to enlighten the farmer upon the question of tariff reform. While the organization is in no wise political, it still has in view the furtherance of that which will do the farmer most good; and a reduction of the war tariff would most certainly claim its attention.

A mass convention will be held in Lyons on the 21st inst., to be put in nomination county officers on a citizen's ticket. We would rather see a straight democratic ticket, but with so many dumb republicans as are in majority in that county perhaps the citizen's ticket will be the best plan to beat the old ring-masters.

As the fall season approaches prairie fire will begin their disastrous work. Farmers cannot be too careful about setting out fires; and proper guards should be plowed or burned around stacks, barns and houses. A day spent in preparing safe guards may save the product of a whole year's work.

FROM NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

Pawnee Rock.
From the Leader.
The barber says it was a sweet mash that he made last week.

A platform dance at Tom Brewer's Wednesday night was enjoyed by the young folks very much.

James Payne, formerly night operator at this point has charge of a station on the Rock Island just east of Holingson.

Dr. M. L. Daniels and wife went to Ardmore, L. T. Tuesday evening on a visit to Mrs. Daniels' father. They will be gone about two weeks.

James Hatter returned to Pawnee Rock this week from Atchinson, where he went about a year ago. The family will be here in a few days.

T. J. Grant, formerly of Pawnee Rock, now living in Denver, Colo., has the contract for building the new bridge across the Arkansas at Larned.

Rev. Davis, formerly pastor of this charge, returned from Oregon a few days ago. He will have the charge at Albert and No. 17, north of us. Mr. Davis was looking quite well last Saturday. He was shaking hands with friends in Great Bend.

Ellinwood News.
From the Advocate.
The campaign is approaching and we should get our war paint on.

The Rev. Bodkins, of Wichita, will attend the prohibition convention at Great Bend next Tuesday.

This week E. L. Hotchkiss bought the Straight farm, west of town, and again sold the same to C. Steinhoff.

John Schmidt, a wealthy merchant of Milwaukee, and uncle of Mrs. M. Musil and Mrs. J. Komark of this place, is in this city.

The many friends here of W. Patton, formerly of this city, will be sorry to learn of the sad death of his wife, at Raymond, some time last week.

One of our druggists, Boston Wilson, left Wednesday for Ohio, where he will visit his parents and friends. He expects to be gone about four weeks.

It is beyond our comprehension to understand how gentlemen could indulge in such language and especially the songs which were sung at the convention last Saturday. The singing was splendid and also in place, but the nature of especially one of the songs was an insult to all persons present, both democrats and republicans alike.

Tuesday last being the tenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sprinkler's wedding their friends decided to come "en masse" and give them a genuine surprise. The Ellinwood Orchestra furnished some good music for the occasion. About thirty couples were present, who all enjoyed themselves hugely. Joe bore the honors with becoming dignity, and both the host and hostess exerted themselves to the utmost to make the evening pass pleasantly, in which they succeeded admirably.

Holingson Scraps.
From Scraps.
The wheat is still rolling into market here. Where does it all come from?

The ladies aid society gave an ice cream supper Thursday evening, which proved a success.

We have two traveling preachers here who are telling the people how to live if they wish to enjoy the happiness of religion.

The sound of the hammer can be heard in all directions. Five houses being in erection at present. Who said Holingson was dead?

QUERY.—Why is Gally's rooster always crowing? Ans: He is congratulating the republicans of Holingson on securing the nominees for register of deeds.

And Sullivan is going to run for congress! O gracious! Thank goodness he's a democrat, and going to make the race on that ticket. Did you ever know of a republican prize fighter? There may be some, but if there are, they are so scarce that we have failed to learn of them. They could not have been "way up in the profess." Republican parents don't educate their children in that way.—Great Bend Register.

Yes, Bro. Charles, John L. is a democrat and will get there Eli. No we never heard of a republican winning many prize fights, either in politics or otherwise. We also agree that if there are any such they never get to be professionals. After November we feel assured that you will be justified in enlarging the list from one to eight. The prizes won will be treasurer, clerk, register of deeds, sheriff, surveyor, coroner and commissioner, and the winners will be Krause, Jones, Strothman, Wilson, Markey, McIlvaire and Coughlin.

From the Dispatch.
Mrs. A. B. Names visited at McCracken last week.

A. D. Schnarrs is building a residence in Smith's addition.

The courting association will meet on the bottoms the 24th of next month. The Methodist church building will be ready for dedication in about three weeks.

Rev. Pitkin and family have moved from Great Bend to Holingson. We extend them a welcome to our city.

A butter and cheese factory is just like any other business institution; if conducted properly it is a success, if not it is a failure.

Dan Curtin has gone to Oregon. A letter was received from him the other day in which he stated that he did not like the country and would return to Holingson soon.

A large tent has been erected just north of the Bishop building on Main street in which meetings will be held every evening for a week or more. The meetings are undenominational and every one is invited to attend.

Annual Coursing.
The annual meeting of the American Coursing Club will commence on the 24th of October, and continue for a week. The Cheyenne bottoms are in good shape, plenty of rabbits and not too much water. From all indications the meeting of 1889 will be the best of the series, in both attendance and interesting races. Hundreds of sporting men from all over the land will be in attendance.

A "Southern Outrage."
Here is another southern outrage. A colored man residing in Reidsville, North Carolina, several months ago applied for a place as mail-route agent, and a few days since the postmaster-general sent on the necessary commission. But meanwhile the applicant had, in a moment of mental abstraction, walked off with a rope. Unfortunately, a live mule was at the other end of the rope, and also disappeared. As a result of this trivial incident, when the commission arrived the late applicant was serving the state inside of the penitentiary.—Little Rock Gazette.

Lawn Tennis.
The tennis game between the Great Bend and Larned clubs Wednesday resulted in a victory for the Great Bend club. Five sets were played, the Great Bend club winning three of the five. The Larned club played remarkably well considering the amount of practice they had had, but the Great Bend boys showed superior skill in serving, which can only be attained by practice. At the close of the playing the young ladies of Larned presented the winning club with a basket of flowers. Both clubs then adjourned to the mineral well where they were greatly refreshed by a plunge bath. A dance was given by the Larned club at the Grande in the evening, which was a "grand" success. The music was good, the floor smooth and everybody happy. We are informed that this is but the beginning of a series of games to be played by the two clubs, and we hope in the near future to again welcome the Great Bend club.—Larned Chronicle.

"THE democrats will hold their convention to-morrow, Saturday, to renounce the officers now serving their first term. There will decide who they want. The Tribune will have no personal fight with the opposition. Personally the officers are pleasant, clever gentlemen, and have doubtless done their best to discharge their duties faithfully and honestly. That they have made some mistakes, is possible, but if so, from no desire to do so. Of this we have no charges to make. The people have the candidates before them, and they are to examine into the characters of their servants and decide who they want. From a political standpoint, the Tribune hopes to see the entire republican ticket elected." From any other standpoint the present officers have given no cause for complaint. That is the gist of the Tribune's opinions.

EVERYBODY is, or should be, interested in county politics; and in order to place this paper before the people and make it acquainted with them we will send THE DEMOCRAT to any address from now until the 1st of February, 1890, (4 months and over) for 60 cents. Send in your name, with 60 cents, and get the best paper in the county until Feb. 1, 1890.

Nearly every store in town had its doors open and clerks behind the counters at 10 a. m. yesterday. It does seem as though the present incumbents are about the poorest specimens of city officials ever allowed to walk on God's green earth.—Monday's Gutter-snipe.

"Our present incumbents," who are doubtless all subscribers to the Gutter-snipe, feel highly flattered by such items as the above.
